Dear Mr. Schoenfelder:

Thank you very much for your letter of 6 February inviting me to the University Banquet at the Shoreham Hotel on Saturday evening, 21 February.

Much as I would like to attend, I have a previous engagement at that time and therefore must regretfully decline your very kind invitation. I appreciate your thoughtfulness in asking me to join you on this particular occasion.

Once again, many thanks and kindest regards.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Dulles:

On behalf of The George Washington University Medical Society and the General Alumni Association, I extend to you a cordial invitation to be our guests at the University Banquet being held at the Shoreham Hotel Saturday evening, February 21, 1959 at 7:30 P. M.

Our speaker is an alumnus of the University, the Honorable Arthur S. Flemming, Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

This will be an outstanding social affair and all alumni groups are cooperating. The Trustees, the Faculty, and Administrative Officers of the University have been invited to join with the alumni in making this a memorable occasion.

We hope that it will be possible for you to be with us.

Sincerely,

Otto W. Schoenfelder
